

GODREJ LAUNCHES HOME DESIGN STUDIO

Godrej recently launched its unique U&US Home Design Studio in the up-market Phoenix Market City Mall in Pune. This store is distinctive as it offers an experiential feel to customers by collaborating with an array of expert interior designers to build their dream home interiors. The store will help transform homes of users across Pune with the latest trends and designs in interiors and hardwood furniture.

Godrej aims at creating interior ecosystems and experience by providing innovative ideas for homes spaces using patented cutting edge technologies. The store will house products, which are flexible and stylish at the same time, thereby giving a niche touch to the homes of customers. A team of designers present at the store will guide the customers with whole space layout, décor and furnishing, thereby offering a 360 degree solution towards home renovation.
